Exciting changes are coming for the Careers web pages (formerly known as Prospective Employees)! The web pages have been redesigned, the content has been refreshed, and the Careers home page has been fully restyled.

These changes will be in effect May 9, 2012. Please take note of the new URL for Careers and update your bookmarks or links: <http://www.hr.dla.mil/careerhome.asp>

We have enhanced the Careers web pages to provide you direct access to valuable information as you search and apply for a job at the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA). The information you need can now be found under the following new categories:

1. About DLA is an insight into DLA’s achievements, mission, vision, values and historical origins.
2. DLA Locations operating in 48 states and 28 countries you can find a location that meets your career requirements.
3. Resources is a collection of information you will find helpful during your job search and through the application and interviewing processes.
4. Career Fields highlights major career options available at DLA, including Career Fields for Interns.
5. Employment Programs are used to fill job vacancies. Review these main programs to determine if you meet eligibility requirements.
6. Benefits provides information on the Federal Pay Schedules, incentives, benefits packages, career development and leadership training.
7. Search & Apply for DLA Jobs contains quick access to DLA job vacancies, tips on how to apply and helpful information designed to assist you during your job search.

Additionally, current events, special topics and new articles will be spotlighted under these categories:

8. Hot Topics & Announcements
9. Revolving Graphics
10. Website Survey is a short survey that lets you provide us with feedback.
