

The DLA Corporate Recruitment program manager participated in a panel discussion November 9, 2011, at the 2nd Annual Wounded Warrior Hiring and Support Conference in Vienna, Virginia. The Conference, sponsored by the Department of the Navy, brought together government, military, and industry leaders committed to hiring and supporting Wounded Warriors. Many organizations presented information on available federal and private programs, resources and tools for hiring and supporting Wounded Warriors.