

DLA recruiters attended the Military Officers Association of America (MOAA)/Corporate Gray Career Fair on April 06, 2011, at the Washington DC Convention Center. MOAA is the nation's largest association of active duty, National Guard, Reserve, retired, and former military officers and their families and survivors. It is an independent, nonprofit, and politically nonpartisan organization with more than 370,000 members from every branch of service. The MOAA / Corporate Gray Job Fairs for the Military Community are held near major military installations across the country, allowing companies the opportunity to meet face-to-face with transitioning/former military personnel and civilians. The event was an opportunity for DLA to market itself to a large number of participating military retirees.
