

DLA recruiters attended the 8th Annual Pennsylvania Conference for Women and Career Fair on October 25, 2011, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This conference, designed to engage, enlighten and empower women from across the state, included inspirational keynote speakers, opportunities to develop new relationships with other women leaders, and skill building breakout sessions ranging from personal finance to health and wellness to career advancement.