

A DLA Recruiter attended a "Putting our Veterans Back to Work" job fair on October 25, 2011, in Washington, DC. The fair was open to all veterans in the greater Washington, DC, Maryland and Virginia Metropolitan Area. The purpose of this event was to bring together government and private sector employers with the intent to hire some of the most highly qualified, skilled and talented men and women, especially those returning from deployment in Iraq and Afghanistan.