

DLA recruiters attended the 2011 Spring Career Fair at Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio on February 24th. Founded in 1831, Xavier University is a Jesuit, Catholic university. Its three colleges offer 83 undergraduate majors, 52 minors and 11 graduate programs to 7,019 total students, including 4,368 undergraduates. The University is the sixth-oldest Catholic university in the nation and one of 28 Jesuit colleges and universities nationwide. The career fair was sponsored by the University Career Services Center and provided students with the opportunity to meet with representatives from 84 organizations.