

DLA recruiters attended the 6th Annual Federal Government Statewide Conference on June 24th at Florida International University (FIU) in Miami, Florida. Representatives from other colleges including DeVry University, Kaplan College, and Bethune-Cookman University were also in attendance. DLA representatives participated in two separate panel discussions. The first panel was a discussion of career opportunities and the second panel delved into the federal government's commitment to diversity. The conference ended with a resource fair where the students and alumni were able to meet with federal government recruiters to further discuss job opportunities.
