NEW SCHEDULE FOR EMPLOYEE BULLETINS

For the past two years, the DLA Human Resources Centers in New Cumberland, PA and Columbus, OH have been publishing joint Employee Bulletins for all DLA employees. These bulletins have been published on a twice a month schedule. During this time, we have covered a multitude of topics. We have reached a point that we feel that it is no longer necessary to publish the Employee Bulletins as frequently. Beginning in June 2008, we will publish the Employee Bulletin on the first Wednesday of each month.

Below is a link to the DLA Human Resource website where you can access Employee Bulletins that have been published. This list includes the topic and the date published.
